

NORMAN DOWDELL

Graveside services for Norman Dowdell were held today at 2:00 p.m. from the Baptist Hill cemetery of Auburn with the Rev. J. L. Scott as the officiating minister. Norman was a Veteran of World War II and resided on Canton Street. He was reported missing December 23 and was found Sunday, January 28th under a bridge in a creek near Eclectic.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Alice Dowdell of Auburn; one son, Dextin Eugene Dowdell; three daughters, Christine Elaine Dowdell, Cortrula Falcia Dowdell and Levorra Agangad Dowdell; five uncles, two aunts, several nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Peterson & Williams Funeral Home was in charge.

* * *