

REIGNS -- Petite LILTON GILBERT BAILEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bailey, and adorable NATHILDA FELICE SILLS, were crowned "KING AND QUEEN" respectively, of the Cradle Roll at a program sponsored by the Sunday School Department of Mt. Zion Methodist Church. Her Majesty is the daughter of Nathaniel S. Sills and Mrs. Hilda Brooks Sills, general chairman. (Robert Green Photo)

King And Queen Of Cradle Roll Crowned At Mt. Zion

Recently, the Sunday School Nathilda Felice Sills, daughter of Nathaniel S. Sills and Mrs. Hilda Doakes Sills, was crowned by Mrs. Edmonia Rouselle, superintendent of Children's Division. Other contestants were: Aveline Colleen Johnson, second place; Frances Louise Robinson, third place; Chana Joy Vantress, fourth place; Roderick Albert Stevenson, fifth place; Dianne Hughes, sixth place; Nelvin Julia Martino, seventh place; and Kevin Anderson, eighth place. The king, 22-month old Lilton Gilbert Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bailey, was crowned by Miss Gertrude Green, church school superintendent. The queen, 2 years, 7 months,

ATLANTA MINISTER SAYS RACIAL BIAS ON UPSURGE IN THE UNITED STATES

CHICAGO, Ill. (ANP) -- A minister from Atlanta said here that racial discrimination is on the upsurge again in the United States despite efforts toward

A beautiful lamp, with the Head of Christ, was presented to Miss Ophelia A. Smith for her faithful and loyal service in the Sunday Church School Department, as pianist and teacher. This presentation was made by Mrs. Hilda Sills, general chairman.

The Rev. Robert F. Harrington is pastor of the church.